MURPHY GROWS STRONGER. THE TALK OF OPPOSITION IN THE

CAUCUS DYING OUT. Meantime the Democratic County Organizations Are Commending His Candidacy, and Not One Has Thus Far Beclared Against Him-His Capacity and Training in Political and Legislative Matters. ALBANY, Jan. 5 .- All talk of any opposition at the Democratic caucus to the unanimous nomination of Edward Murphy, Jr., for Senator has died out here. The formal caucus will be held next Tuesday, but no one regards it as possible that there will be any change of sentiment between now and then, except an increase in the intensity of the Democratic support of Mr. Murphy. Mr. Murphy is greatly gratified at the many tokens of friendship he is receiving from Democrats throughout the State. The Democratic County Committees are endorsing him in a most complimentary manner. Even the counties which have been regarded as Cleveland countles have been passing strong resolutions in his favor. Not one of the sixty county organizations or of the 128 Assembly district organizations has declared against him. This shows a wonderful unanimity of Democratic sentiment.

If Mr. Murphy were as well known to the readers of some New York newspapers as he is to Democrats throughout the State the unanimity of his support would be better un-Mr. Murphy, besides being the Chairman of the State Committee, is the oldest member of the State Committee in point of continuous service. He has been present at Democratic State Conventions as a delegate or adviser for more than thirty years. He has built up the Democratic organization in Troy until Troy is as surely Democratic as New York, and his organization has extended until Rensselaer county, where he lives, and which used to be surely Republican, has become Democratic, and the old-time Republican majoritles in the surrounding counties have been reversed or materially reduced. The strength of the magnificent organization which Gov. Tilden built up has descended to Mr. Murphy as the natural heir. Mr. Murphy was a veteran Democrat in 1874, and he was then one of the leaders in the movement which nominated Gov. Tilden at the Democratic Convention of that year. He was one of the young men who were the mainstays of the Democratic party in its great victories of those days. He has always been with the Democratic party and its regularly nominated can didates. His immediate acceptance of the decision of the party conventions is bearing its fruit in the unanimous support of him by the men he opposed in convention as well as by those he supported.

Besides the resolutions of the County Committee and other Democratic organizations, which are wholly unsolicited by Mr. Murphy. he is receiving letters and telegrams from hundreds of Democrats throughout the State tendering their services and offering their support. Mr. Murphy's personal position is and has been one of dignity. He has asked no man port. Mr. Murphy's personal position is and has been one of dignity. He has asked no man for his favor, support, or vote. He has not written or spoken to a single member of the Legislature, except to thank him for his unsolicited support. As he always has done in the past, he has continued to occupy the position of a steadfast Democrat. pledged to abide by the decisions of his party in convention assembled. The decision of party conventions may not always have been to his personal liking, but he has been all the more strenuous in his efforts for party success.

It is absurd to attack Mr. Murphy's capacity and training in political and legislative matters. He is one of the best versed men in political history in the State. His counsel and advice have aided in the forming of party platforms. The subjects of taxation, especially municipal faxation, and the proper treatment and disposition of public or municipal franchises are thoroughly familiar to him. In his administration of the municipal affairs of the city of Troy, of which he was Mayor for several terms, he showed a love for economy and a skill in administration which reduced the city's expenditures and increased the efficiency of the city departments. Troy increased in wealth, population, and presperity during his administrations. Many manufactories were induced to locate there, wages were increased, and the people were thoroughly satisfied. Mr. Murphy is not a recorder increased, and the people were thoroughly satisfied. Mr. Murphy is not a good common-sense speech on political questions, all the more effective and convincing recorician or a professional after-different corator, but he can make and has often made a good common-sense speech on political questions, all the more effective and convincing because it was earnest, accurate, and sincere, He is no more a professional orator than is Mr. Cleveland, but the delegates to the Democratic State Conventions for thirty years and the people of Troy know the quality and the effect of his speeches. Even were Mr. Murphy not a college man and a student of political and economic matters, it is impossible to imagine a man continuously occupying his position in State affairs for so many years without acquiring an intimate personal knowledge of all matters affecting the people of the State.

CABINET SPECULATION HERE.

Whitney Not In It-Maybe Brondhead Is And Villard in Talked of Again.

The Hon. William Collins Whitney sat at rest yesterday all gossip associating his name with Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet. He repeated for publication what he has told his friends since election day. This is: "I am not to be member of the Cabinet."

The old report that Henry Villard would be Secretary of the Interior has been revived.

It will be remembered that while in Chicago several weeks ago, Mr. Villard announced that he was not a candidate for any place in the Cabinet. Democrats who say they know a thing or two of what is going on, are confiden ching or two of what is going on, are confident that William R. Morrison of Hilinois is not to be Secretary of the Interior. They add that Mr. Villard is the man.

Mr. Cleveland had another interview yesterday with Col. James Broadhead of St. Louis, The Colonel is on here, it has been said, in the interest of ex-Gov. D. R. Francis of Missouri, but it may be a case of "Why don't you speak for yourself, John?" Mr. Cleveland's friends said yesterday that he thought very highly of Col. Broadhead, and that in 1884 he was on the point of asking the Colonel to enter his Cabinel, but at the last moment changed his mind, and took Senator Garland. It was intimated last night that Mr. Cleveland is just as likely to ask Col. Broadhead to enter the Cabinel as any Missourian hitherto named.

The report printed in the Berlin Tageblatt, that Joseph H. Senner of the Staats Zeiting had been selected by Mr. Cleveland to succeed William Walter Phelps as Minister to Germany, was prohounced by Dr. Senner yesterday to be "absolutely without any foundation whatever."

There was quite a gathering of Democratic chalding at the Hoffman House last night.

There was quite a gathering of Democratic chieftains at the Hoffman House last night. Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan, Speaker Sulzer, Mayor Gilroy, Senator Cantor, and Richard Croker dined and conferred together. The opinion was unanimous that Edward Murphy, Jr., would be elected United States Senator from New York.

SENATOR GRAY WON'T BE A SECRETARY His Friends Say that He Will Not Go Into the Cabinet if Invited,

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 5. - The friends of Senator George Gray of Delaware say that he has decided not to leave the Senate for a seat in Mr. Cleveland's Cabinet if invited. There is little doubt that Mr. Cleveland has been rather anxious to give Mr. Gray an opportunity to anxious to give Mr. Gray an opportunity to decline to enter the Cabinet, either as Secretary of State or Aitorney General. Mr. Cloveland is anxious that ex-Secretary Bayard shall resume his old place in the Senate, because he would thus be assured of a tried personal friend with a commanding influence in that body. But Senator Gray is not inclined to make the change, as it would be a financial sacrifice, which his circumstances would not warrant. It can be stated by authority that Mr. Bayard will be called to public life by Mr. Cleveland, but not to the Cabinet.

THE DEADLOCK IN NEBRASKA.

No Inauguration of State Officers Because the Senate Fails to Organize.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 5 .- All efforts to break the Senatorial deadlock to-day falled, and the situation to-night is unchanged. To protect the seven Republican representatives from Douglas county, whose seats will be contested. the Republican leaders proposed to form a fusion with the Independents in the upper House. Accordingly three Republican Sena-House. Accordingly three Republican Sena-tors agreed to vote for the Independent or Populist candidate for President pro tem.; but the deal was broken through the efforts of Congressman Melkoljohn, who believes in the Republicans standing firm. To-night the Republicans are still confident of coming out on top. Two Democratic Sena-tors have promised to unite with thom, and very strong pressure is being brought to bear to secure the necessary third Democratic vote.

Owing to the failure of the Senate to organ-ize, the inauguration of State officers did not occur to-day.

Republicans on Top in Kansas,

TOPREA. Jan. 5. - One of the contest cases be fore the Supreme Court was decided to-day in favor of the Republicans. The cases still pending involve the same point of law. The will probably be favorable to the Republicans. The result of the Supreme Court decicans to-day and yesterday give the Republi-cans a majority of two in the lower House, not counting the one independent Republican, and will enable them to organize the House. The Populists still insist that they will be able to control the organization, but do not indi-cate the method to be pursued. The Legisla-ture will not convene until next Tuesday but the members are nearly all here, and the various members are nearly all here, and the various factions are holding frequent caucuses re-garding the election of Speaker, State Printer, and United States Senator.

Colorado's Senate Can't Organize.

DENVER, Jan. 5.-The Senate has resolved it. self into a deadlock, and how it will get out of the muddle no man can tell. The seven Democrats, known as the "White Wings" faction, have the balance of power and declare they will have a large proportion of the offices. The Populists worked with them harmoniously yesterday in the selection of a President pro yesteriay in the selection of a President pro-tem, but they now declare that they must have a large proportion of the offices, and this the White Wings refuse to give them. The strength of each party in the Senate is: Republicans, 15; Populists, 13; Democrats, 7. It is reported that a combination will be formed between the Republicans and Democrats whereby the Sen-ate can be organized.

The House of Representatives completed its organization to-day.

The Senatorial Fight in Wyoming

CHEYENNE, Jan. 5 .- The Senatorial fight in this State waxes warmer as the convening of the Legislature draws near. Ex-Gov. George W. Baxter is plainly in the lead. Notwith standing Mr. Baxter's strength, in all probability the first few ballots in the Legislature will result in a deadlock. The Populists say they will give Mrs. Mary F. Bartlett a complimentary vote. This will take five votes from some one, and when they do come back to the leading candidate, as they will do, they will undoubtedly elect him.

Senator Bate Will Succeed Himself.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 5.-The joint Democratic caucus called to nominate a candidate for United States Senator to succeed Senator Bate met to-night, and at a late hour nominated Senator Bate on the first hallot. Senator Bate. ex-Gov. Taylor, Col. John H. Savage, and Judge Peter Turney were placed in nomination, but Judge Turney and Col. Savage were withdrawn. Senator Bate received 78 votes. There were numerous changes, and the nomination was made manimous, Bate receiving 85 and Taylor 2. The caucus was stormy.

An Opposition Ticket in the Harlem Cinb, The annual election of the Harlem Club will take place on Jan. 14. The regular ticket re-ported by the Nominating Committee is headed by John A. Deady for President. An oppoed by John A. Peady for President. An opposition ticket, with Fdwin S. Rice for President, has been placed in the field. Mr. Deady is a lawyer, and Mr. lice a former President of the club. The opposition ticket is largely supported by club members who are also members of Holy Trinity Church, and it is urged by Mr. Deady's adherents that the opposition wants to make the club a church annex.

Labor Men Want Abbett,

At a meeting of representatives of labor or ganizations held in Decker's Hall, Jersey City. on Wednesday night, resolutions were adopted endorsing the candidacy of Gov. Leon Abbett for United States Senator. John O'Donnell was Chairman and Adam Nell was Serstary. The resolutions, which were presented by John Graham of the Masons' Union, recited the services the Governor has rendered the State and his party, and urged the Legislature to give him the reward he has so well earned. A copy of the resolutions will be sent to each Democratic member of both tranches of the Legislature.

STILL FIGHTING TYPHUS

TEN NEW CASES REPORTED YESTER DAY AND THREE DEATHS.

Not Half So Many Fresh Cases as on Wednesday - More Patients Found on Binchwell's Island-A Personal Inspec-tion Made by the Health Authorities.

Ten new cases of typhus fever were refrom the disease. This is a distinct falling off in the number of new cases. On Wednesday twenty-two were reported. Three of yesterday's new cases were taken from 34 Bayard street, and a fourth can be traced to that house. Two cases were found in the Charity Hospital on Blackwell's Island. A girl of 10, Julia Friedman, was found in a new place, 60 Division street. There had previously been three cases at 78 Division street, in the family of a taker. The total number of cases reported since Dec. 1 is 101.

He was employed from Dec. 9t to Dec. 28 in the sleoholic ward, from which a case was reported early in December. The ward was kept quarantined until Dec. 30. During that time Disbrow went out of hospital bounds at night, his time out, and came in contact with many people. He slept in the Milis Training School for Male Nurses, in the hospital grounds, from which he was taken yesterday to North Brother Island. When his case was reported yesterday the alcoholic ward of Bellevue was again put in quarantine.

The case of Jaceb Harding, reported on Blackwell's Island, where he had been an Inmate of the Charity Hospital, made six cases reported from the Island up to 3 o'clock yesterday afternoom. Of these, two were reported from the almshouse, two from the workhouse, and two from the Charity Hospital.

Late last night a seventh patient, George Herbert, was found on the Island. Charles Howard, who was reported from 100 Bowery, is the second from that lodging house. Howard probably took the fever while at 280 Bowery, another infected house, where he lodged a week ago.

The colored newsboy, John W. Henry, re-

The colored newsboy, John W. Henry, reported on Wednesday as a suspect proved vesterday to have typhus. It is not known where Henry had been lodging for some time before he walked into the Chambers Street Hospitai on Tuesday evening. The authorities were relieved to learn that he had not lodged in the Newsboys Home, which he gave as his address since Nov. 10. He lodged here but one night. Matron Steig said. We have fumigated the dormitory to be on the safe side."

In addition to the dotermined cases, a subject was isolated at Bellevue. In the morning a man, evidently a laborer, went to the hospital and said he was sick. He was deaf and could not give intelligent replies to questions. He said he was Joseph Redding, 30 years old, of 47 West Tenth street. No house in West Tenth street is numbered 47, and no one in the block hetween Fifth and Sixth avenues could be found who knew of such a person. It is probable that Redding gave the address at random, in a desire to conceal his real lodging place.

A resolution was passed vesterday by the Board, al Charities and Correction that no more passes should be issued to visitors or friends of people on Blackwell's Island or any of the institutions under the control of the Board in which typhus fever has appeared, until the present outbreak is stamped out. Blackwell's Island is now in quarantine, no one being allowed on it except the doctors and the staff of the Board of Charities. Frest-dent Porter made a visit to the different institutions yesterday.

At Believue the erysipalas tent has been converted into an observation tent for typhus subjects, and two more tents have been ordered.

The Health authorities will push work on the new reception hospital at the foot of East Sixteenth street, and when it is finished the police barricade of such places as 34 Bayard street will no longer be necessary.

ceived yesterday assurances from Mayor Gilroy that the Board of Estimate would make proper appropriation for the necessary sanitary inspectors. After this assurance was received the Board held a special meeting and appointed thirty physicians as additional inspectors. To correct as far as possible the danger of overcrowded and uncleanly iodging houses further instructions were issued to the inspectors.

Br. Edson and President Wilson made a tour of lodging houses on Tuesday night. Among the places they visited was the 7-cent hammock house at 18 fell street, known as Happy Jack's Canvas Palace. In this palace lodgers have a choice of a cot at 10 cents or a suspended strip of canvas, called a hammock, for 7 cents. No coverings of any kind are supplied, and the stove in the middle of the room is supposed to supply all the warmth required.
These are on the upper floor of the palace; on a lower floor are seventy cots, which Dr. Edson and President Wilson ordered removed and replaced with fewer and cleaner cots.
Superintendent Byrnes has issued this order:

Typhus fever is contracted by contact with an affected person or with clothing, bedding, or other articles which have been in contact with the affected person. Its development is slow, the easily noticeable symptoms not appearing for from fourteen to twenty-one days after reception of the contagion. The first symptom is a low, feverish condition, accompanied by exhaustion and decression. The next development is a great increase in the degree of the fever, which runs the temperature up to 102°, and then the most readily recognized symptom the severe and racking headaches, begin, and the temperature runs up to 104°, and even as high as 105°. Then the last symptom, the rash, followed by the coffee-colored tint of the skin, appears. The rash is very like the scarlet fever rash, but is easily distinguished by the experienced prefessional observer. The points of the rash are small and light red and appear generally on all parts of the body. Of course the diagnosis is usually determined before the rash appears. Following the breaking out of the rash the patient becomes irrational; wildly so, at times. The internal symptoms are, as to the abdominal derangements, similar to those observed in typhoid fever, but in other material symptoms the two diseases are widely unlike.

Although the authorities desire the greatest watchfulness on the part of all citizens in detecting cases in their early stages, they caution the public against unnecessary alarm. The uset plan in all cases of even mild fever is to call in an experienced physician, for only those who have had experience in this particular disease can be trusted to diagnose correctly in an early stage of development.

Another peculiarity of typhus, before the appearance of the rash, is the many points of close resemblance

PLENTY OF SNOW THIS TIME,

And Good Sleighing if it Deen't Drift Too Much-Bother For the Railroads.

A frosty artist rode down on a stiff north-easter last night and painted the town white. He gave an extra touch to the big bridge, and it looked somewhat like a fabric of fantastic lace across the throbbing throat of the river.

To come down to hard facts, there was a lively snow storm with a strong northeasterly wind that at times rose to the dignity of a gale. It was a thin, adhesive snow, and it stuck to everything and everybody it struck. Folks going to the north or east were plastered with the clinging erystals until they looked like snow men. The high wind, which gave to the storm a suggestion of the great blizzard. drifted the snow badly. Little whirlwinds took up the light stuff and moulded it into picturesque pillars. There was no shelter on the almost horizontal lines. It was coming down almost horizontal lines. It was coming down and otherwise at midnight in true blizzard style, with abundant prospect of lasting until after dawn.

That's what the national and local weather prophets said it was going to do. They said oven more, and that was that the snow will probably keep on falling until 8 o'clock this morning. probably keep on falling until 80 clock this morning.

The hearts of the men who own cutters and trotters rejoiced within them. If the snow dones't drift too much they will be sitting behind jingling bells to-day listening to the runners cutting through the crism snow, holding the reins with one hand and the srir with the other. Hootal Don't you hear dem bells?

Long Island Ciry, Jan. 5.—Long Island landscape is fast disappearing from sight under one of the biggest snowfalls known throughout that section in years. The storm began in earnest about 80 clock last night, and two hours later travel was seriously delayed by the blockade of snow. The probabilities are that by morning everything will be snowed under. Extra efforts are being made by the Long Island failroad to keep the tracks clear, but it is feared the outlying branches will be snowbound before dawn.

SHOT HIS WIFE AND HIMSELF. Shocking Tragedy in Albany Caused by s

Watch and a Mother-lu-Law. ALBANY, Jan. 5,-This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock William H. Shattuck, 22 years old, shot his wife. 19 years old, three times in the head. killing her instantly. He then shot himself in the temple, but will probably live. The couple have been married only about three months. and were living with Mrs. Shattuck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Radley, at 98 Willett street, facing Washington Park. The couple have not lived happily together lately, owing principally to the wife learning that her husband had purchased a watch and given it to another woman before the marriage. Since then Mr. Shattuck took the watch Lack from the other woman and asked his wife if she would like to have it. She said "No," that she had a watch of her own, and that any way she would not have it. She said." No." that she had a watch of her own, and that any way she would not carry a watch which was bought for another woman. This watch has been a subject of many heated arguments between Shattuck, his wife, and her mother, and was apparently the cause of the shooting to-day.

After dinner Mrs. Badley reproached Shattuck with lying about the watch, and demanded that he tell the truth about it. The story he told differed from the previous ones, and Mrs. Badley told him so. In the mean time Shattuck's wife found a receipt for the watch in his overcoat bookst. This angered him, and he went into the front patlor. Mrs. Shattuck went in there soon afterward to get her hat and jacket, as she was going out shopping with her mother. As she stood by the chair on which her jacket was hanging, her his hand, with a 32-calibre revolver, shot her three times before she could turn around, once in the foreshead, a second time in the left eye, and once again in the left side of the neck. She fell dead by the s. so of the stove.

After Shattuck has shot himself in the left temple, George Radley, a younger brother of the murdered woman, took the pistol away from him and went after Shattuck's father. Shattuck started to go back to the sitting room where Mrs. Indiey was, but fell to the floor within six feet of his wife's body. Soon afterward he was removed in an ambulance to the City Hospital. At the hospital he said that the shooting of himself was accidental, as in some manner his arm struck the wall, resulting in the discharge of the revolver into his own head. He also said that his wife's brother, who took the weapon away from him, kieked him in the stomach. He is expected to live.

The winter quarters of the sleav are at Baraboo, Wis. Zip was devotedly attached to his big sweetheart. Babe, and the two were almost continually together. Recently Zip lost his sweetness of temper and became the most vicious animal in the herd. After he had demolished one end of the elephant house and nearly killed his elephantine sweetheart, he was double chained to a pair of stakes and isolated from his companions. Instead of subduing him. Zip's chains seemed to drive him to frenzy, and several days ago. while his keeper was away. Zip succeeded in drive him to frenzy, and several days ago, while his keeper was away. Zip succeeded in breaking loose, and before he was recaptured ran amuck through the long animal house, demolished three of the thirty new double cages constructing in the wagon shop, tossed a camel over the fence into the river, and scared the kangaroos into spasms.

When, finally, Zip was subdued, it was noticed as a curious thing that one of the large chains with which he had been hobbled had disappeared. The most diligent search falled to discover it. Zip was chained down again, but he seemed to have lost his ill-temper. Instead, he began visibly to droop and the food placed near him was left untouched. It was pain that the great brute was lil, and medicines were ineffectually tried. Still Zip continued to fall. One morning news came to the Ringlings that Zip was dead.

Frod. Donaldson of the University of Chicago and Frod. A. Keley of Milwaukee, in the presence of a crowd of scientific men and showmen, performed the autopsy this morning. A sharp knife was first drawn through the tough skin under the stomach, the entire length of the animal, and with the assistance of the circus employees the hide was removed. An incision was then made in the stomach. As the keen knife cut into the flesh Prof. Donaldson uttered an exclamation of surprise. When the stomach was fully exposed the spectators could see what appeared to be the links of a blg chain. Aminute later all doubts were set af rest, and when the two professors held up the great chain which had so mysteriously disappeared on the occasion of Zip's rampage, even the circus employees expressed their astonishment. Zip weighed eight tons and stood nearly twelve feet high. He lived nine days with the chain in his stomach.

HE WAS THE BARTENDER'S FRIEND, And, Being an Obliging Person, has Spent Three Months in the Tombs.

Detective Dougan of the Oak street police entered the salcon, I James slip, shortly after 1 o'clock on the morning of Sept. 30 in plain clothes. The bartender recognized him, and asked a friend of his. James Griffin of 100 South street, to take his place behind the bar for a street, to take his place bening the bar for a few minutes while he went to another part of the building. Griffin sold a glass of beer, and Dougan arrested him for violating the Excise law. Griffin was committed to the Tombs to await trial. If he had been the bartender he would have been balled. Yesterday, when his case was reached on the General Sessions calendar, it was found that, being without moneyed friends, he had spent more than three months in the Tombs. They let him go.

Dr. MeGlynn May Go to St. John's College. There was a rumor in Brooklyn yesterday that the Rev. Dr. McGlynn would probably become professor of rhetoric in St. John's College. It was in the chapel attached to this college that Dr. McGlynn said the first mass after his restoration, a few Sundays ago. It is approunced that Archbishop Satolii will soon visit the college.

Dr. Hartnett, the President, refused to confirm or deny the rumor about Dr. McGlynn.

A Spurious Encyclical. CHICAGO, Jan. 5 .- Archbishop Ireland says that the alleged encyclical letter purporting to be from the Pope is spurious in every par-ticular. The document represents the Pope as calling upon the priests and laymen of the United States to use their influence as citizens of America in securing for the Pope complete control over temporalities in this country.

MGR. SATOLLI COMING HERE.

HE WILL MEET ARCHBISHOP CORRI-GAN AND BISHOP M'QUAID, and Celebrate Pontifical Mass In St. Ag About Dr. Burtsell on Mgr. Satolil's Connection with the McGlynn Case.

Archbishop Satolli, the Pope's delegate, will celebrate a solemn pontifical mass in the Church of St. Agnes in East Forty-third street, on Jan. 22, two weeks from Sunday. The occasion will be the feast of St. Agnes. Archbishop Corrigan will be present, and the panegyric of the Saint will be delivered by Bishop McQuaid of Rochester. In addition to the episcopal dignitaries, many more or less wellknown priests will take part in the services. which will be conducted under the direction of the Rev. James T. Lennon and the Rev. T. . Donlon. An augmented choir will furnish the music, and the function will in all respects e noteworthy. The mass will be followed by a dinner at the rectory, which will be note-

In views of the recent removal of the disabilities of Dr. McGlynn and of Father Sullivan, whom Bishop McQuaid had put under the ban, the bringing together of the Papal delegate and of the two episcopal ecclesiastics might have seemed premeditated and done to effect some object, but the Rev. Dr. Brann, rector of St. Agnes, says the invitation to all three preceded the recent acts of Archbishop Satolli. The Papal delegate when he first arrived in this country was invited by Dr. Brann, through Archbishop Corrigan, to participate in the St. Agnes's day services. The invitation, which had been accepted, was renewed more recently, but only to remind Archbishop Satolli of the engagement. In the same way Bishop McQuaid was invited to participate with Archbishop Satolli in the services pefore the reinstatement of Father Sullivan. He accepted, and he has not reconsidered his acceptance. That Archbishop Corrigan will certainly be present. Dr. Brann considers a acceptance. That Archbishop Corrigan will certainly be present. Dr. Brann considers a matter of course.

Dr. Brann's invitation to Archbishop Satolii came about through the latter's being a professor of the American college at Bome. of which Dr. Brann is an alumnus, as is Archbishop Corrigan. There is, consequently, Dr. Brann says, no significance in his inviting the Papal delegate and Archbishop Corrigan to meet under one rool. Archbishop Satolii is not expected to come to this city until the day hefore the festival. It is not yet known where he will stay or how long.

The Key, Dr. Richard Lalor Burtsell, who was ecclesiastical counsel for the liev. Dr. McGlynn, made this statement yesterday:

"It seems to me to be due on my part to Mgr. Satolii to say a few words in reference to the way in which he became connected with the case of the Rev. Dr. McGlynn.

"In 1888 he came has the representative of Pepe Leo XIII. to the formal organization of the Catholic University at Washington. On his return to Rome he stayed some days at Archbishop's knowledge and consent, he teingraphed to Cooper Institute, asking Dr. McGlynn was absent on a lecture four, but when he received the telegram he sent it to me from Vermont, asking me to call upon Mgr. Satolii in his mame, to express his regrets at not being able to see him in person, and to say that he would give immediate attention to whatever the Monsignor might say to me.

"When I received the letter Mgr. Satolii had any power to act in the case.

"On his arrival here hast autumn as ablegate of Pope Leo XIII. and specufically on his coming to New York for the conference of the Archbishops on Nov. 10. "The public has been informed of the happy solution. It surprises me that any one should expect to ascertain the full details of the settlement of the case till Mgr. Satolli's report should have reached the Holy Father, in whose name he acted. Any news given here would have been likely to be cabled to kome, and the respect due to the Supreme Pontiff could not have been properly maintained.

At any rate, it has made the supporters of Archbishop Corrigan indistant. Their indignation is mittigated to a degree by the fact that the number of signers is seemal, and that, with one or two exceptions, they are all rotoriously friends of Dr. McGiynn.

It is known that the card was kept back some time in an unsuccessful attempt to get more signatures, but only 15 priests in and out of this archdiceses signed it. It was said last night by one in a position to know, that Archbishop Satelli must be anything but the deard by an endersement so promulgated. Dr. Burtsell drew up the card, and Father for rigan of Hoboken put it in circulation. It is as follows:

SATOLLI NOT TO BE RECALLED, instructions Received Brondening

Powers and Imposing New Dutles, Wassington, Jan. 5 .- The interesting fact is ascertained from unquestionable sources of information that the European mail delivered at the Catholic University to-day brought to Mgr. Satolli, the Paual ablegate, instructions widening his powers and imposing upon him new duties and responsibilities, which must necessarily occupy his attention to the exclusion of all but the most urgent business for some time to come. In view of these facts, a reporter who had been sent out to the university to call attention to the cable despatch from Rome quoting statements of a Neapolitan newspaper as to Mgr. Satolit's alleged recall deemed it unnec-easary to present his inquiry, but did so, and was informed that there was not a particle of truth in any of the Naples newspaper's state-other additional fact of interest was One other additional fact of interest was learned, which was that the circulation among priests in New York, Brooklyn, and New Jersey of a protest against the efforts being made by a Catholic newspaper to antagonize the legate's mission had neen brought to Mgr. Satolli's attention, and that he had said that while he recognized the sincerity and devotion that inspired this movement, he thought it better it should go no further. No one, he said, could doubt the loyal adhesion of the American clergy to the actions of the Holy See through its authorized representative, nor would any one take the utterance of the newspaper in question as the expression of the American clergy.

Satolii and His Mission. Rome, Jan. 5.-The Corriere del Mattino, a newspaper published at Naples, says that a leading topic at Rome is the flasco of Mgr. Satolli's mission from the Vatican to the United States. The Corrière article says that Architehop Satolit's brusque manner has excited the discontent of the American Bishops, who have caused the Curia to understand that they will not tolerate the arrogance of its envoy. The Valican, therefore, for fear of causing greater friction, has been obliged to recall Architehop Satolii, instead of having him remain in America to retreeent the tops at the Jounson City, Tenn., Jan. 5 .- The almost impassable condition of the roads between here and Bakersville, N. Confirmation of the first news has not yet been received, but some reports from that section today declare that the number of dead is sixty-

There was no clue to the perpetrator of the double murder. Soon it was suspected that Bob, alias Dock, Ray, colored, was the man. A warrant was secured for his arrest and a posse formed to expure him. Four negroes, headed by a colored man named McIver, were sworn in as officers, and they learned that Ray was in a negro hut about a mile from Keyser, in Moore county, waiting to get out of the State. About 7 o'clock this evening he came out of the but to start for Keyser, when the four colored men demanded his surrender. He dashed at them, shooting right and left. They shot him down, killing him almost instantly.

MR. BLAINE A LITTLE BETTER. He Suffered No Relapse, and Dr. Loomis WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 .- A reporter met Dr

Johnston, Mr. Blaine's physician at the door of the latter's residence after he had paid hi usual morning call to-day, and in response to a question the Doctor said that Mr. Binine had a good night, and that they thought him better this morning. Dr. Johnston was accompanied by Dr. Loomis, the New York specialist, who came here to see Mr. Blaine. They took the carriage awaiting them and gave orders to the coachman to drive to the railroad station. After returning from the station Dr. Johnston and that the visit of Dr. Loomis could not be regarded as significant or as indicating that there had been a serious turn in Mr. Blaine's condition. There was really no necessity for the visit, he said, but the opportunity presenting itself Dr. Loomis came to Washington—which he had contemplated doing for some time—to personally see the patient. Dr. Loomis Dr. Johnston said, was gratified at the improved condition of Mr. Blaine. Unless a relapse occurs Dr. Loomis will not return to Washington for a week or so. panied by Dr. Loomis, the New York specialist.

She shows the effect of a gale encountered about sixty miles south of Cape Hatteras. A severe westerly gale raised a choppy sea which met the long heavy swell moving from a former storm, and made it very unpleasant to those on board the pneumatic cruiser. She lost a quarter boat and life buoy and discovered a break in the tiller rope fittings just in time to repair it before matters became serious. These accidents and the necessary cleaning will delay the ranging of the guns, but only for a short time.

The Monterey's Trial Trip

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.-The new coast defence vessel Monterey had her official trial trip on San Francisco Bay to-day, and, as far as can be ascertained, filled every contract requirement. The contractors and members o the Trial Board think she exceeded the 5,400 horse power required. The full data cannot be worked up for a week, but approximate computations made to-day show a horse power of 5,452 on the main engines alone, and 100 to 150 more horse power can be added for the auxiliary engines. Her maximum speed was over 15 knots.

A nod from a man in the corridor, and Central Office Detectives Vallely and Evanbos stepped forward and arrested him, charging him with the larceny of $28 from Peter Fisher of Gerken & Fisher, who keep a restaurant at 23 East Seventeenth street.

Clark, who is 20 years old, and good looking.

took his arrest indifferently, and on the way up to the West Forty-seventh street station ouse suggested that it must be a mistake. In the morning he telephoned to Louis C. Van Doren, a lawyer in the Equitable building, to meet him at the Jefferson Market Po-lice Court. At court Mr. Fisher said that en the afternoon of Nov. 23 Clark, who had pre-viously been introduced by one of Mr. Fisher's

Everything would have been settled had there been a few days delay. He said he had not tried to built he young man out, as he thought it might do him good to remain at the jail over night. He expected to go to the court in the morning, but what he did there would depend on what mind he found the prisoner to be in.

An Innocent Man Sent to Prison for Life. DETROIT, Jan. 5 .- George Bozzenberger was found guilty about six weeks ago of murder in the first degree for the killing of William Knack. Affidavits in support of a motion for a new trial were filed to-day by attorney for defendant, from which it appears that Boyzenberger is innocent, and that Otto Schulthers is guilty. Young Schulthers, who is a nephew of Bozzenberger, to-day confessed to having committed the murder for which his uncle is now serving a life sentence. Bozzenberger will probably be cleared.
